TOBACCO SALES VERY SATISFACTORY

Splendid Averages Attained and Only Twelve Baskets Rejected.

SPIRITUOUS BIDDING.

Market Shows Unusual
Strength and Prospects
Good For Future.

Three sales held at the warehouse of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co., in this city last week were the most satisfactory of any held in Central Kentucky. A total of 273,040 pounds of tobacco were disposed of. The offerings consisted mainly of the lower grades of the weed, and considering this, the market showed unusual strength.

The third sale of the week was held Saturday, when a total of $155,540 pounds were sold for a total of $19,502.72, or an average of $12.54. Omitting one crop of very poor tobacco, which aggregated 5,235 pounds and which sold for $2,012.65, the general average of the house for this sale would have reached $12.83. The managers of the warehouse, however, are not inclined to omit from their reports any grade of tobacco that has been sold and include every basket in the average.

The quality of the tobacco sold on the local market since the opening of the season indicates that the Paris sales are second to none in the State in the matter of prices obtained.

Growers who have made consignments to the warehouse have been fully satisfied with the prices obtained, although it is freely admitted that in the majority of the cases the tobacco is of poor or medium quality, little of the better class having been offered to this date. Of the entire amount sold Saturday only twelve baskets were rejected.

Following are a few of the crop averages of the last sale:

Houston & Austin, 3,600 pounds for $1,236.99; average, $14.38.
Kuster & Jenkins, 2,700 pounds for $432.09; average, $16.
J. R. DeJarnet, 2,270 pounds for $365.85; average, $15.82.
Ferguson & Bramble, 5,835 pounds for $813.96; average, $13.98.
Ward & Smith, 2,530 pounds for $437.99; average, $17.30.
Ward & Legget, 6,365 pounds for $1,052.21; average, $16.53.
R. B. Hutchcraft, 5,285 pounds for $691.96; average, $13.
Bedford & Hendricks, 1,780 pounds for $318.13; average, $17.89.
Sam P. Harding, 2,145 pounds for $341.85; average, $15.90.
Whaley & Allison, 2,090 pounds for $307.85; average, $14.73.

It is the purpose of the managers to continue the plan of holding three sales each week until it becomes possible to secure enough tobacco to hold a sale daily. The first sale of this week will be held to-day.

PARIS SEWER SYSTEM IS TO BE EXTENDED

When a candidate for re-nomination Mayor John T. Hinton promised if re-nominated to extend the sewer system of the city, Friday the first step was taken toward redeeming that promise when a contract was let to J. B. Hurley, of St. Louis, Mo., to put in a sanitary sewer from the end of Stoner Avenue, near the Paris Ice Manufacturing Co.'s plant, and connecting with the main sewer below the intersection with the main sewer near the jail at the foot of Main street the pipes will be carried around the jail, passing under the bridge over Stoner, from which point to the dam it will be carried on concrete pillars built against the high stone wall which extends from the bridge to the dam, and above the dam the pipe will be buried in the earth along the face of the bluff of the creek to a point near the residence of Chas. Foote, where it will enter Stoner Avenue and run with the avenue to its end near the ice factory. The pipe will be of tile, except the portion built along the face of the wall between the dam and the bridge over Stoner, which will be of iron. This portion of the contract was let to Mr. Hurley for about $3,500, though the engineer who laid out the route and prepared the specifications estimated that this part of the work would cost $6,000.

This is intended as a part of a trunk line which later is to be extended so as to pass under the Maysville railroad near the ice factory, and strike the branch which comes down through Claysville, and follow this branch to the south end of the city so as to give sewer connection to all the south and eastern portion of the city.

MRS. J. CAMPBELL CANTRILL
SUCCUMBS AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Carrie Payne Cantrill, wife of Congressman James Campbell Cantrill, died yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, after an illness of six months from bronchial trouble and asthma, at her home in Georgetown.

Last May Mrs. Cantrill went to Asheville, N. C., in hopes of getting relief, but, finding she was not improving, asked to come home to be among her friends.

Her death will cause a shock all over Kentucky as well as in Congressional circles, where she was universally beloved. Her husband was at her bedside when death came.

Mrs. Cantrill was forty-one years old, and was born and reared in Georgetown. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, James Edward, a student at the Staunton, Va., Military College; a sister, Mrs. Junius Caldwell, of Louisville, and a brother, John Payne, of Boston, Mass. The only other close relatives are three nephews and a niece, Payne Harper of Huntington, W. Va.; William and John Payne, of Georgetown, and Mrs. Thomas Connell, of La-grange. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

Homemade Cedar Chest.

Get a large pine packing box. Hinge on the lid and putty up the cracks if there are any, but it is better to get one without cracks. Purchase a bottle of cedar oil from the druggist and paint the inside of the box with this, being sure that the oil soaks into all crevices. Use the oil plentifully, and when thoroughly dry line the box with cambric. Cover the outside with any preferred material. The cedar oil will retain its odor for years, and is as much disliked by moths as the cedar wood itself.

Wonderful Human Stomach.

The human stomach as diagrammed in the encyclopedia resembles the map of South America, and as a potentiality exercises the revolutionary characteristics of that realm. It varies in size; in youth being longer than thick, and reaching from the chin to the heels; in ripe maturity being thicker than long, and reaching from the back two feet beyond the natural plumb line.—American Magazine.

Talleyrand and Josephine.

Talleyrand, the notorious French statesman, friend of Napoleon and ambassador at the English court, was designed for a military career, but an accident, when one year old, rendered him a cripple for life. His cunning cleverness, political penetration, adroit intrigues and ingenious subterfuges were vehemently opposed by the emperor's wife, Josephine, who energetically denounced him as a "cursed cripple."

Good Fertilizer for Ferns.

Nitrate of soda dissolved in water should be given to ferns that are small or weak, but do not make the proportion of nitrate more than one-quarter of an ounce to the gallon, but large plants, and those of vigorous growth should be watered with a solution in proportion of one-half an ounce of nitrate to the gallon. Apply about every ten days. Soot and salt are also good.

Worry May Cause Death.

Medical science has recently explained how worry commits its murders. It has reached the conclusion that in many instances of what have been regarded as lunacy, and from which the victim finally dies, the case has simply been one of acute worry. Instead of the person dying of mental breakdown, he has worried himself to death.

Science Pursues Criminal.

Ultra-violet rays used while photographing a forged check are said to render detection absolutely certain. The forger uses a chemical ink eraser to remove some portion of the writing, but even though this be done so skillfully as to defy detection, under a high-power magnifying glass the rays reveal in the photograph a heavy smudge where the erasure occurred.

Our Friends and Enemies.

The things which our friends do with and for us form a part of our lives, for they strengthen and advance our personality. But the things which our enemies devise against us do not form part of our lives; we only experience them, reject them, and guard ourselves against them as against frost, storms, rain, hail or any other external inconvenience which may be encountered.—Goethe.

CONVENIENT HOG COTS

Animal Must Have Ample Protection From Rain and Cold.

Corn and Other Feeds Make Them Grow, But Dampness Takes Off Weight Almost as Fast as Put On—House Simple Affair.

It is a great mistake and poor business management to raise hogs, feed them high-priced corn and then allow them to be in the rain and cold. Some farmers think that because a hog is a hog it can get along with any kind of shelter or with no shelter at all. The corn and other feeds you give may make them grow, but dampness will take off weight almost as fast as it is put on. With only a small amount of money spent for lumber and roofing for building comfortable houses, sows, pigs and mature hogs will bring in larger profits in the hog business. Hogs of all kinds like cool shade, and cool places for wallowing and sleeping during the warmer months.

The efficient hog house is a simple affair, and can be built by anyone with only a small cash outlay. It need not be more than four feet high in the rear and slightly more in the front to allow slope for the roof. The sides should be short. The lumber for them will not cost much, but it should be of good material to keep out rains and winds. Probably the best roof for hog houses is that of heavy felt. This is to be laid on tight fitting or matched boards. Galvanized iron also makes a good roof, and is to be commended for the movable houses. When iron of any kind is used for the roof it should be laid on solid boards, as iron is very hot in summer when the sun shines, and is cold in winter.

Since a hog house need not be too large the farmer who keeps several sows and is growing a large number of pigs each year should have a half-dozen or more of these houses on the farm and in convenient places. Some farmers have all their hog houses near the barn and other buildings, but I do not think this is a good practice. Hogs of different ages and sizes will not do well in one herd, says a writer in an exchange. They should be separated into small herds, according to their ages and conditions. Sows and growing pigs should not be allowed to be on the same lot with fattening hogs. The excessive corn diet is not good for their growth and production, and with large fattening hogs the smaller ones will be crowded and injured. Too many hogs in one pen are more apt to contract disease than when they are put into several lots and smaller bunches.

When the farm is divided into small fields and each field is fenced hog tight it will pay to have at least one hog house in each field, so that it can be pastured with hogs at some time each year, thus saving and turning to good account all the waste forage.

CARRIER FOR WATER BUCKETS

Lid Covers Pails and Prevents Contents Spilling Out—Invention of Illinois Man.

A carrier for buckets of water, garbage and the like has been patented by an Illinois man. A wheeled frame supports a low-lying platform that is designed to receive the buckets, and a hinged cover is adapted to swing parallel with the platform over the buckets. This cover can be adjusted to fit close to the tops of the buckets and prevent them from overturning or from spilling their contents. With this carrier a man can move liquids about rapidly, as he need not be exercising care to see that there is no jolting of his load. The cover is not required; it can be turned up into vertical position and dropped into a recess in the back of the vehicle, out of the way. A lever locks it into either position.

Generous Feeding Required.

The incessant and continuous demand on a brood sow, when suckling a large litter of pigs, is such a drain on her system that it creates an appetite that will require generous feeding for the good of the sow, pigs and the man who contemplates getting quick returns from them.

Weight Is Useless.

Of what value is weight in the big horse unless the horse is able to move that weight at a good rapid gait, and without occupying an acre of ground to turn around.

Keep Fences Repaired.

If a dog ever starts the "getting out" habit it is hard to stop him, but if the fences are kept in good repair little trouble will follow.

CONTROL OF CORN-EAR WORM

Insect Eats Its Way Along Within Husk, Devouring Young and Tender Kernels and Silk.

(By W. C. O'KANE.)

One of the encouraging things that turn up occasionally in the eternal warfare against insect pests is the fact that some remedy or other that is recommended is also an ordinary feature of good farm practice. It is that way with fall plowing. Several troublesome insects of field and garden happen to be in such location in the late fall that we can reach them by stirring the soil. One or two of them can be fought in almost no other way.

The pest that hits the mark most closely is the corn ear worm. When infesting corn it eats its way along within the husk devouring the young and tender kernels and silk. As it works its way down into the ground the worm fills the hole behind it with soil. But once at a depth of three or four inches it turns and makes a short open gallery, part way to the surface.

Corn-Ear Worm at Work Eating the Silk and Young Kernels.

Then it retires to the bottom of this and remains until it becomes a moth. In the gallery the pupa of the last generation remains all winter. The moth does not come out again until next spring. Now, send a plow through the field in late fall and you accomplish very good results. The pupa is buried beneath solid earth, which later is compacted by winter or spring rains. The moths are thus effectively imprisoned, and never reach the surface to lay eggs and start the life round once more. Weather conditions or demands of crop rotation may make fall plowing out of the question, but if it can be done, there is much to be gained by it.

PRACTICAL HINTS OF PLANTS

Palm, When Grown on Shady Side of House and Kept Moist, Will Prove Thing of Beauty.

(By BESSIE L. PUTNAM.) If you cannot afford a palm, go to the woods and get a nice fern. If grown on the shady side of the house and kept moist, it will prove a thing of beauty.

The woodland violets may well keep it company, some of the large white ones being delightfully fragrant.

When receiving a new plant, especially if from a florist, examine it well and see that it is free from insects. A breeding place for some new insect may be revealed.

A tea made of tobacco leaves makes one of the best remedies for insects; roses, especially, are benefited by spraying with it weekly. Only a few forms of worms will endure the weed. Start geranium cuttings in midsummer for the winter blooming. They are readily rooted in a glass of water placed in a sunny window. As they increase in size, keep the tips of the branches pinched back to insure compact form of growth.

The agave, or century plant, will respond well to a draft of manure-water once a week during the summer, but when resting the fertilizer must be entirely withheld.

Keep the flowers of all annuals picked regularly if you would have the season of bloom prolonged.

Seed forming is a drain which most plants cannot endure except by a deterioration of the blossoms.

The most successful flower grower is one who is continually on the lookout to see what her wards are about. If the soil is dry she notices it; if a new insect appears she is on hand to fight for her charges. Few plants will for a protracted period do their best without care.

KEEP AWAY SQUASH ENEMIES

Kerosene Emulsion Will Drive Bugs From Their Cover So They Can Be Hand-Killed.

To keep bugs away from the young plants, cover the hills not infested with wire netting, burying all edges under the soil, else they will get under them sure.

The squash is subject to flea beetles and yellow-and-black-striped bugs and these do not like clean cultivation. So burn all rubbish after getting off the crop. Examine the vines twice a day. The bugs gather constantly. Better plant more seed than are properly developed for emergency cases of destruction by bugs.

Kerosene emulsion will drive bugs from their cover so they can be hand killed, and that is about the surest practice.

Haul Out Manure.

This is an excellent time to haul out that manure that was left in the sheds and yards last spring.

Stage's Loss Literature's Gain.

England's censorship of the drama caused Fielding to turn from playwright to novel writing. Fielding began his literary career as a dramatist, and by his political satires brought about the establishment of the censorship in 1737, the bill being introduced by Walpole, one of Fielding's victims. With playwrighting thus barred to him, he turned his attention to the novel.

Changeable Climate

IS A CONSTANT THREAT TO THE HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, discusses an important health topic. He says:

Yes, it is the climate, not the germs, that we have to fear in this country. The germs are present, to be sure, and are of some significance in diagnosis. Climate, a changeable climate, is the true cause of disease. The atmospheric pressure varies, the humidity of the atmosphere changes. Every day the temperature rises and falls. All this presents to the body very great trials to adjust to.

The area of high pressure forms in the northwest. Moves rapidly southeast, subjecting millions of our population to its influence. The result is, thousands upon thousands of people catch cold. A small per cent. of these thousands do not get well of their cold. It goes into pneumonia, or chronic catarrh, or bronchitis, or laryngitis, or pleurisy.

Now, what I am getting at is this: These climatic changes are inevitable. No one can prevent them. The very best we can do is to prepare for them, defend ourselves against them.

Good health is the best preventive. The very best. Vigorous health, with excess vitality, this is Nature's own preventive and protection.

We do not all have this, however. Some of us must have assistance. The assistance that I use for myself, would recommend for my friends to use, my neighbors and my countrymen, is Pe-ru-na. Keep Pe-ru-na in the house.

If the children indicate they are catching cold, give them Pe-ru-na. If the parents, the grandfather or grandmother, present those symptoms that are so well known which precede a cold, a few doses of Pe-ru-na and the deed is done.

Some people are very subject to colds. Others who have weak lungs and are timid about our winter weather, take Pe-ru-na off and on during the whole winter season. The plan is a good one. The medicine is inexpensive. It does no possible harm to the system. It keeps the appetite regular and keen. It assists digestion and helps the user through the inclement weather of winter.

SOME POULTRY CONCLUSIONS

Expert of Missouri Station Gives Out Few Practical Suggestions on Chicken Raising.

Under the heading of "Lessons Learned," Mr. Quisenberry of the Missouri experiment station has issued the following notes for poultry raisers, based on the year's work in the egg-laying contest at that station:

That there is no variety of breed which far exceeds others in general use as far as egg production is concerned.
That some hens have a born tendency to lay, and others have a born tendency to put on fat. The latter kind should be culled out in establishing a laying strain.

That a little moistened food is relished and will increase egg production.

That many high producers lay thin-shelled eggs, and that the germs are often weak. A few high producers are able to lay large numbers of eggs, fertilize them and put vitality into the chick.

That the Mediterranean class can stand more protein and fattening food than the birds of the American, Asiatic or English classes. There is not so much danger of the Mediterraneans becoming too fat, and they require a richer food than the other classes mentioned.

That the purpose of properly feeding and housing a hen is not to feed eggs into her body, but to so feed and care for her that you may get out of her the eggs which breeding has placed there.
Proper feeding, housing and care have a bearing on the number of eggs produced by a flock, but breeding is most important.

That the best producers have broad bodies. The back is broad, and the ribs are widespread, giving plenty of room for egg and digestive organs.

That good layers are big eaters. A bird must have capacity to eat and digest a big amount of food if she is to lay well.

That most of the high producers have good sized combs for their breed.

HANDY POULTRY FEED HOPPER

Device Shown in Illustration Has Advantage of Shelf in Front, Preventing All Waste.

This hopper has the advantage of having a shelf running along the front, by means of which much waste can be prevented. It can easily be made from any available lumber to the size indicated or smaller if required.

Dry mash feeding, or, in fact, any mash feeding, has its drawbacks in the fact that some of the food is wasted by being pulled out on the ground. There are some things which the birds like better than others, and if they are not Useful Feed Hopper.

very hungry they will endeavor to pick out the things that they like in preference to the general feed. The best way to overcome this is to have the feed only half way up in the troughs or hoppers from which they draw their supply. If they will have to reach down for the food and pick it right up there, they cannot pick or pull the rest of the food from the hopper. A good, deep hopper is what you need, and you will find it will be a saving to you.

MARGIN OF PROFIT AND LOSS

If Record Is Kept of Cost of Production and Sales One May Tell
If Flock Is Paying.

A flock of hens should be made to pay a good dividend on the investment. If they do not do this, there is something radically wrong somewhere along the line.

If you have kept a record of the cost of production and sales you will be able to tell whether or not your hens are paying. Hens that are laying an average of 50 to 60 per cent. are doing well, and will make a good showing in the right side of the cash book. And averages above that will be so much more gain, and will more than justify keeping the birds.

If they fall way below this mark you had better investigate and find out the cause of the trouble. It may be that you have a poor strain of birds; that you are not feeding the right kind of food or in sufficient quantities, or that you are not giving them the proper attention that they must have in order to be great producers.

White Clover for Egg Layer.

White clover hay is the richest in lime. Feeding clover is a preventive of soft-shelled eggs. Cut clover hay has helped revolutionize the poultry business. Red clover hay contains about twenty-eight pounds of lime to the thousand pounds. Scaled the clover hay at night, and keep it covered so it can steam. See that the clover is cut to one-half inch length. When longer it is apt to pack in the crop, causing crop-bound.

Modern Poultry Houses.

Poultry houses that are up-to-date are no longer double boarded affairs that are closed up at every point, but are fresh air houses with plenty of ventilation.

A WOMAN'S PROBLEM

In the looking-glass a woman often sees wrinkles, hollow circles under eyes,
"crow's feet,"—all because she did not turn to the right remedy when worn down with those troubles which are distinctly feminine. Backache, headache, pains, lassitude, nervousness and drains upon vitality—bring untold suffering to womanhood and the face shows it. The nervous system and the entire womanly make-up feels the tonic effect of —Dr. W. G. Dailey entertained the following physicians Friday evening with a six o'clock dinner: Drs. David Barrow, Woffolk Barrow, Clarke, McClymons and Bullock, of Lexington; Dr. Marion Dailey, of Paris; Drs. W. M. Miller and C. B. Smith, of Millersburg; and Mr. Claude Dailey, of Paris. The home was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white, which was carried out thoroughly. Pink carnations were in evidence throughout the house. The menu was served in three courses, the first course consisting of roast turkey, dressing, cold ham, cranberry sauce, scalloped oysters, and several vegetables. The second course was fruit salad, cheese balls and coffee, the third ice cream and cakes. One of the most unique features of the occasion was the place cards, which had been arranged in rhyme by Mrs. Dailey, and from these rhymes each guest was to find his place. The rhymes were peculiarly applicable to each guest and as each rhyme was read they had but little difficulty in guessing who it was intended for. Mrs. Dailey was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Lucille Dailey, and Miss Elizabeth Ingels, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marion Dailey, of Paris. The evening was spent pleasantly. About nine o'clock the guests took their departure, most of them returning in their automobiles.

Mr. Sam Woodford, of this city, sustain a very severe injury to his right some time with Thos. Buckner at his hand in a peculiar manner Friday and it was thought the amputation of two fingers would be necessary. Mr. Woodford, who has been spending time with Mr. Thomas Buckner at his home in the country, came to town Friday morning with Mr. Buckner, who was driving a heavily loaded wagon. The team stopped on a steep hill and Mr. Woodford attempted to place a rock beneath one of the rear wheels. In so doing the two fingers of his right hand were caught between the wheel and stone, crushing them almost off. He was hurried to this city where his injury received attention.

MAMMOTH CAVE NATIONAL PARK BILL TO BE PUSHED

Every effort will be made by Representative R. Y. Thomas, Jr., of Kentucky, during the regular session of this Congress to procure the enactment of the Mammoth Cave National Park Bill. Mr. Thomas reintroduced that measure, calling for an appropriation of $1,000,000, and it was referred to the House Appropriations Committee instead of the Indian Affairs Committee to which it was referred during the last regular session. The Third district Congressman maintains that it was an error of reference when the bill was sent to the Military Affairs Committee last year, and he hopes for greater success for it in the hands of the Appropriations Committee.

ROAD ENGINEERING COURSE AT STATE

Road Building Subjects to Be Discontinued in Lexington During January.

INSTRUCTION FREE.

Object Is To Improve Efficiency of Road Engineering—Program.

State University, Lexington, Kentucky, will open a short course in Highway Engineering, January 5th to 17th, 1914, for the benefit of people who are interested in the Good Road problem of the State.

No tuition will be required for this course and the expense outside of railroad fare should not be over $10. It is hoped that every County Engineer will take advantage of this opportunity to improve his education, and thereby better the road condition in his county. Men who expect to become County Engineers or Road Builders should avail themselves of this opportunity to prepare for an examination before the State Highway Commissioner. Special instructions will be given to men expecting to take the County Road Engineer's Examination. The mornings will be devoted to lecture work, men of the highest reputation in their special line of work have been secured for these lectures and it will be worth while of any one interested in Highway Engineering to attend these lectures.

The afternoons will be devoted to practical field and office work, such as the use of transit, level, plotting profiles, laying grade lines, and making estimates of cost for various kinds of work. The State of Kentucky has spent millions of dollars on her roads; if these roads had been constructed of material and by methods approved by experienced road builders, they would have been a source of pride and pleasure both to those who built them and to the Commonwealth, instead of having brought censure on all who were connected with the work and added greater opposition to all Good Roads Movements.

It is with the view of equipping men with a better knowledge of road building that the University has decided to give this course. Each lecture will be from thirty to forty five minutes in length and after each lecture (Continued on page 7)

A GREAT INNOVATION IN THE TYPEWRITER AND EDUCATIONAL WORLD.

Ideal for Home Use or a Small Business Correspondence.

For over twenty we have been manufacturing strictly high grade, durable, low-priced typewriters, and this typewriter represents the results these years of experience. The American Visible Typewriter stands today absolutely alone in this field. The Ideal Home Typewriter.

IMPORTANT POINTS OF THE AMERICAN VISIBLE TYPEWRITER.

"SPUGS" TAKE UP NATIONAL FIGHT

National scope is being given the so-called "spug" movement—Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving—by the Women's department of the National Civic Federation, under the honorary chairmanship of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President. The movement begun in New York is now to be federated in Washington through committees from the various States.

In a statement outlining the national scope of the organization, Miss Maude Wetmore, chairman of the woman's department of the National Civic Federation, tells of the good to be accomplished in reducing useless giving among shop girls and other wage workers, and says the national organization stands for individual freedom in Christmas giving, and gifts which spread happiness and helpfulness as against collective giving and formal exchange of gifts. Some of these latter practices are characterized as forms of "petty graft" and as senseless and stupid.

FARMERS LOSE MEAT AS RESULT OF WARM WEATHER

Many farmers of this county who killed hogs early in the month have suffered the loss of a large portion of the meat and in many cases all of it has been ruined. When killed the weather was cool, but the recent cold snap has played havoc with it, and now there are many farmers who regret their haste in slaughtering the swine. The same situation prevails all over Central Kentucky, and it looks as if the farmers have had a costly lesson in the early killing of hogs. The loss in Central Kentucky, it is said, will reach thousands of dollars.

WORKMAN SUSTAINS PAINFUL INJURY IN EYE

While cutting a piece of stove pipe last Thursday morning, Mr. W. F. Hill, a gas fitter in the employ of the Paris Gas & Electric Co., was painfully injured in the left eye by a small particle of the iron flying from the pipe and striking his eye. He was taken to Lexington, where a specialist removed the iron. Mr. Hill is getting along nicely and it is not thought the injury will result seriously.

PARIS CHURCH WILL GET $1215 FOR OLD WAR CLAIM

The Presbyterian church of this city will get a war claim to the amount of $1,215 from the United States government.

The House of Representatives Friday passed 112 Kentucky War Claims chiefly for property appropriated or property destroyed during the Civil War.

The large number of Kentucky claims assed created much comment and testified to the industry of a number of Kentucky members of the House who have been making a herculean effort to break into the Federal treasury.

Among the claims passed by the House were these: First Presbyterian church, Paris, $1,215; First Presbyterian church, Lebanon, $1,380; Hannah Lally, executrix of William Lally, of Louisville, $2,023; Lou B. Nall, Jefferson county, $46.40; Rudolph Minton, Jefferson county, $310.

The bill carried $1,910,000 for individual claims for stores and supplies, $486,000 for claims on account of damages to churches, colleges and other buildings and $51,000 for miscellaneous claims, all in accordance with the findings of the Court of Claims.

NEGRO PRISONER INSTITUTES HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS

Habeas corpus proceedings instituted before County Judge Denis Dundon by attorneys of Wm. Lee, the colored highwayman arrested in Winchester by Patrolman Fred Link, and brought here, came up for a hearing Monday, but were postponed until Thursday.

Lee, who is wanted in Marion, N. C., where he escaped from a chain gang at work on the public roads, was arrested on a nominal charge of disorderly conduct and brought to Paris. The Marion, N. C. authorities were notified, and Deputy Sheriff W. H. Curtis, of Marion, came to Paris to take the prisoner back. Lee at first agreed to return without requisition papers, but later became stubborn and refused to go without the necessary papers being secured. Deputy Sheriff Curtis returned to Marion last night to secure requisition papers on Gov. McGreevey.

Lee secured attorneys who instituted the habeas corpus proceedings, which will be finally disposed of Thursday.

W. R. HUKILL SUFFERS A BROKEN HIP IN ACCIDENT

Mr. William R. Hukill, well-known throughout this section as a horseman of prominence, met with a serious accident Friday afternoon when a horse he was driving became unmanageable, running away, and as a result of the injuries sustained Mr. Hukill is confined to his home, on Broadway.

The horse driven by Mr. Hukill was the property of Mr. E. F. Clay, Jr., and as Mr. Hukill was driving down High street, near the corner of Eighth the horse assistance, frightened at a red lantern which was used as a signal light on a pile of bricks in front of the new building being constructed by Mayor John T. Hinton.

The animal in its fright plunged across the street, the wheels of the vehicle in which Mr. Hukill was riding skidding along the street car track. Mr. Hukill was thrown from the buggy with great force and was rendered almost unconscious by the fall and the intense pain he suffered. The horse turned the corner at Eighth street and was stopped at the Georgetown pike bridge and returned to this city.

A number of persons who had witnessed the accident hurried to Mr. Hukill's assistance, and he was carried to the residence of Mr. Frank Jacobs, where medical attention was summoned. The attending physician was unable to determine the extent of his injuries and he was removed later in the night to his home on Broadway. Friday morning a thorough examination was made, and it was found that his hip had been broken. The injured member was given immediate attention, and, although suffering considerable pain, Mr. Hukill is getting along nicely.

His many friends in this city, as well as those in adjoining towns, where he is well and favorably known, are deeply distressed at the sad accident, and hope for his speedy recovery.

A handful of raw pig iron, weighing about five pounds, is worth five cents. From it 60 table-knife blades can be made, of a value of $15. Converted into steel watch springs, there can be about 110,200 of those tiny coils made from it. They sell for $1.75 a dozen, which would bring the neat sum of $16,070.83 for the five cents' worth of raw metal.—Browning's Magazine.

Long Life.
Sir John Lubbock, the scientist, has shown how long insects may live if preserved from accident and harm of all kinds. The greatest age attained by an insect, as far as known, was that reached by a queen ant, which lived until August 8, 1888, when she was nearly fifteen years old. Another queen of the same species died after a life of thirteen years.

Mummy Eyes.
Mummy eyes, as they are called, are taken from the bodies of Bolivian mummies, but bear no resemblance to the human eye. They look like glass shells with gilt inside, and in spite of their being solid, they are delicate and very easily broken. When exposed to dampness the gilt appearance is lost and they resemble a piece of yellow crystal.

Important, Though Unnoticed.
We are apt to underestimate the force of unorganized conviction in politics and religion. Milk costs a city as much as water, for all that its supply is unfocused, so little impressive in any way. The milk has nothing monumental about it, but the lofty aqueduct is not of more account.

Can You Believe This?
Nature's most deadly antipathy seems to have been overcome. A rat was killed in a produce company's plant in Missouri and left four young rats, which the cat has undertaken to bring up, meantime not neglecting her duty of keeping the place clear of all adult rats that come in sight.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN SERIOUSLY ALARMED.

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by all dealers. (adv)

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is nearly always caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impaired hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TRAINING COLT FOR A FAIR

One of First Important Things is to Teach Young Animal to Behave Himself and Be Quiet.

(By PROF. E. L. POTTER, Animal Husbandry, Oregon Agricultural College.)

In showing horses at county and state fairs and horse shows, especially in showing colts, it is important that the animals be trained for the occasion or they are unlikely to show their work.

One of the first things is to teach the colt to behave himself and be quiet, so that he will not get excited, tear around, and "act up" like a naughty child before company, when led into crowd.

The next step is to teach the colt to continue still when it is required. Then it must be taught to stand in the proper position, with his feet squarely under him, his front feet side by side, and his hind feet also side by side, his head up and ears forward.

This will not only require training; it will mean that the owner or attendant dant will need to be constantly on the lookout to see that the animal maintains his position. One frequent sees at county fairs men bringing in good horses, and standing with their hands in their pockets while allowing the horses to stand down on one side with their heads at one side, in no way showing off their points as good horses. Neither the owner nor the horse in such case shows at his best.

The horse led into the show ring should always have a good bridle, and never should be brought in with just a halter, as it is impossible to handle a horse properly without a bridle. The colt should be taught to lead properly to show his action to good advantage. He should learn to walk or trot up by the side of the attendant and pull forward on the lead rein, not backward. The attendant should hold the horse with but one foot of rein between his hand and the bit.

In trotting the colt to the bridle it should be taught to step up in good shape, and pull forward on the rein instead of backward. In teaching the colt to trot for show, the attendant must run beside the horse's shoulder, always keeping step with the horse. An attendant who stumbles along in his own gait cannot be expected to make the horse travel at his best. Attention to these points will make a world of difference in the appearance of the horse in the ring. It will make a poor horse look better, and prevent a good horse from appearing badly.

PIGS AT MARKET MATURITY

Time May Be Determined Very Largely by the Character of Feed and Manner of Feeding.

From a market standpoint a mature hog is one that has either temporarily or permanently ceased growing and taken on the form and finish required by the meat trade. The time at which a pig comes to maturity may be determined very largely by the character of the feed and the manner of feeding.

Pigs may be brought to market maturity anywhere between the ages of 6 to 9 months. Early maturity is brought about by feeding an excess of non-nitrogenous foods or by sudden changes from nitrogenous to non-nitrogenous foods. By feeding an excess of such a fat-forming food as corn meal, the pig does not have a sufficient amount of protein nutrients to continue its growth, and so begins to lay on fat.

It is a very easy matter, however, to carry early maturity to extremes because under the conditions necessary a pig will not grow as large or as rapidly, and so his gains will be more expensive. The thing to strive for in pork production is to bring the pig to maturity at the time he is to be marketed and not before.

Feeding Young Pigs.

After the pigs are two weeks old they may be turned into the lot together, where they may be fed without being disturbed by the sows.

Variety of Feed.

Young growing pigs crave a variety of food, and it can usually be given to them in slops better than in any other way.

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health.

For forty years the best physicians have relied on the whole-some predigestion of nourishment in Scott's Emulsion which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright.

• Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health; it is pure, rich strength. 13-80

Origin of Two Old Sayings.
"Going to the dogs" comes from the fact, where dogs are scavengers of the streets, and become so unclean as to be unfit to touch; while the expression "Tell it to the marines" used to show disbelief in the truth of a story, arose from the fact that when the marines first went aboard they were naturally rather "green" concerning nautical affairs, and someone who related a very tall yarn was told to "tell it to the marines," the idea being that they could be more easily gulled.

CROUP AND COUGH REMEDY

Croup is a terrible disease; it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, O., writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We can rely on it for croup, coughs, and colds." So can you. 50c. and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia, St. Louis. (Dec.) (adv)

Poet's Lot a Hard One.

The lives of poets in this callous world have ever been characterized by misery and now a New York man is charged with a modern and most ingenious cruelty to an unfortunate band. He advertised for poems, offering to set them to music, and charging the author $21. But most poets would prefer to be "published" before being set to music.—Springfield Republican.

Ornaments Last Longest.

Ornaments last longer than anything else that man makes. There are brooches and necklaces in museums more than 40 centuries old. Monuments, perhaps, stand second, and houses third. The life of furniture is shorter still. There is very little furniture in England which dates beyond the year 1500. Pictures last longer than furniture, and there are paintings still in fair condition which have weathered six centuries of life.

Two Sides to the Shield.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that married men live longer than bachelors because it is so easy for the former to increase their pleasures. When they strike a streak of luck they feel twice as fine as bachelors because they add their wife's joy to their own. A sophistical argument, which sounds well enough as long as you suppress the fact that bad luck goes double, too.

Arabia's Great Desert.

In Arabia it seems that there is a tract of land unexplored which is nearly five times as large as Great Britain. Probably there is no more desolate waste to be found in the entire globe than that which is called the "dwelling of the void." Not a single river is estimated to flow throughout its entire 400,000 square miles.

Something He Had Forgotten.

When little Marjorie tried to spread her toast with a piece of butter almost as large as the bread itself, her father remonstrated, saying: "You mustn't be so wasteful, Marjorie; some of the poor people in China have to get along on a few grains of rice each day." "But, father," replied Marjorie, "you must remember that rice swells."

Genius.

Genius is the art of taking infinite pains.—Carlyle

How to Reckon Tonnage.

The method of reckoning a vessel's tonnage, carpenter's measurements, is as follows: For a single-deck vessel, multiply the length of keel, the breadth of beam, and depth of hold together and divide by 95. For a double deck vessel, multiply as before, taking half the breadth of beam for the depth of the hold and divide by 95.

Naturally His First Thought.

An American gentleman went over the field of Waterloo with a guide, who boasted that he escorted General Sheridan over the scene of Napoleon's great defeat. "What did General Sheridan say?" asked my friend. "Oh, nothing." He must have said something. "Well, he only said: 'It was a good place for a fight.'"

Chance for Missionaries.

A missionary stationed in a land where the natives were cannibals wrote for assistance as follows: "Our small force of brethren seems to be unable to cope with the distress which prevails in this dark and benighted land. Many of the natives are starving for food. Please send a few more missionaries."

Devised From Old Legend.

The Mexican stamp bears the coat of arms of the country, an eagle on a cactus, holding a serpent in its talons. This device is the outgrowth of a legend that the first Aztec settlers chose the site of their city from seeing an eagle so engaged, and situated at that spot.

Pellagra Due to Flint in Water.

Professors Scala and Alessandrini of the University of Rome have announced the discovery that pellagra is due to the water of the affected districts, which contains colloidal solutions of flint. The disease can be prevented by adding carbonated chalk to the water.

Some Situation, Bo!

The managers of a Brooklyn cemetery advertise: "Graves finely situated, surrounded by the beauties of nature, commanding a fine view of the bay, and, in short, meeting every requirement of the human family. People who have tried them cannot be persuaded to go elsewhere."

Surely Sufficiently Governed.

The human family is subject to fifty principal forms of government.

Sure Enough.

"So you depend on recognition from posterity?" said Mr. Dustin Stax. "Yes," replied Mr. Penwiggie. "Another generation will recognize my genius." "But how are you going to know whether the opinion of a future generation is any more trustworthy and desirable than that of the present public?"

Our Eyes Tint the World.

We view the world with our own eyes, each of us, and we make from within us the world we see. A weary heart gets no gladness out of sunshine; a selfish man is skeptical about friendship, as a man with no ears doesn't care for music.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

Australia Still Unexplored.

It is curious to realize that vast parts of the British empire have never been seen by British eyes or the eyes of any white man. Nearly a quarter of Australia is still unexplored, mainly in the west, where the population averages only one person in every twenty miles.

Fell Away in Old Age.

A reversal of the rule that it is never too late to mend is found in the case of a centenarian of Hartford, Conn., who, according to the Watchman, lived up to the age of one hundred and since attaining that extraordinary climacteric has been arrested six times for violating the excise law.

Chinese Settlement in Paris.

Paris now has a Chinese settlement, which is both law-abiding and picturesque. The first families arrived a year ago, and now one hotel shelters fifty-three Chinese in five rooms. The men are mostly engaged in making toys, which the women and children sell throughout the city.

Ancient Alphabet.

The ancient Arabic alphabet consisted of 24 letters, to which four more have since been added. The Turkish consists of 33, the Russian of 39, the Spanish of 27, the Italian of 20, the Latin of 22 and the French of 23 letters.

Bound to Get Him.

DEATHS

PRESTON.
—A message received in this city Sunday morning announced the death of Mr. Henry Preston, which occurred at his home in Ashland Sunday morning, following a protracted illness of Bright's disease.

Mr. Preston had been in ill health for more than a year, his condition assuming a critical stage about two weeks ago, when his brother-in-law, Mr. Bruce Miller, of this city, was summoned to his bed side. His condition was somewhat improved and Mr. Miller returned home last Thursday evening. On Saturday he received a message to the effect that Mr. Preston was sinking rapidly and in company with his aunt, Miss Nannie Miller, of this city, he left for Ashland, arriving in that city a few hours before the end came.

For many years Mr. Preston was a prominent furniture dealer of Ashland and lately had been engaged in the piano business. He was one of the most prominent men of that city and enjoyed a wide acquaintance. He was a frequent visitor in Paris where he made many friends.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Allie Miller, of Millersburg, this county, and one son, Mr. Bruce Preston, of Ashland, and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Hatcher, also of that city. Mr. Swift Champ left Sunday for Ashland to attend the funeral services.

THEATRICAL.

At The Columbia Today.

Chas. Dickson, in his own great comedy success, "The Buffer." Cousin Howard interrupts an interesting honeymoon; the bride schemes to get rid of him; and hubby is the victim of an amusing mix-up.
"The Spirit of Envy." (Thanthous-er.) As she looked at her husband—slow, unsuccessful, but honest—she realized that at all and he had done nothing that might bring shame on her; and her passion for riches and the spirit of envy passed.
A Keystone comedy will also be shown, entitled, "Across the Valley." Mr. Reed will be heard in a new song. (dv)

Columbia To-morrow.

Special feature in two acts, "The Van Warden Jewels."
When a "society highwayman" story is well done on a moving picture film it is very effective—because of the contrast which crime offers when sandwiched in among the every-day actions of society people. The Van Warden Jewels, as a play, is dramatic—and well-bred—if one can imagine the two mixed.

This web of intrigue is clearly indicated, from one step to another, all through the moral, every-day life of well-bred people who live the usual country-house life. There is no "rough-house"—no blood or gun play. But there is an excellent picture of society life as it really is—and a very real impression of the only sort of criminal one finds among that class of people.

A single reel picture will also be shown, entitled, "Louis, The Life Saver." While the rollers roll onto the beach at Cape May, Louie plans he will save some beautiful maiden from the surf and marry her. He does save a beautiful one, and money too, but the wedding bells don't somehow ring.

At the Paris Grand.

A corps of distinguished artists have been selected for the tour of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Salome" by the American Grand Opera Company, to be seen at the Paris Grand on Monday, Dec. 15. Mme. Norwood has been specially engaged for the vocally gorgeous title role of Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Mme. Norwood created the prima donna roles in three of Puccini's operas—"La Tosca," "La Boheme," and "Madame Butterfly," being selected by Puccini himself for the title roles. She is purely an American artist, having obtained her musical education in America. Mme. Johanna Kristoffy has been selected to play "Salome." In this part she has established a world wide reputation. That artistic conductor, Herr Joseph Andre Tressl formerly conductor of Kroll's Theatre, Berlin, and the Savoy, London, will conduct the orchestra.

Miss Mildred Rogers, contralto, Mr. Henry Taylor, the leading tenor of the organization, Mr. George Dunstan, baritone, Mr. Edwin Skedden, Australian baritone, are among the famous gathering of grand opera stars. (adv) shown at this house today—Mrs. Fiske, one of America's premier actresses, in "Tess of the D'Urbervilles."

Parson Tringham discovers that John Durbeyfield is the lineal descendant of the ancient and knightly family of the D'Urbervilles. Tess, his eldest daughter, has inherited all the weakness and passions of her ancestors. Durbeyfield abandons himself to a life of ease and indolence, and to advance their financial prospects, Tess is sent to claim relationship with the rich and powerful D'Urbervilles of the adjacent county. Tess encounters, Alec, D'Urberville, who deceives her; and in humiliation she returns home, where her child is born. The child eventually dies, and Tess makes a determined struggle to reclaim her ruined life. She meets Angel Clare; the two fall in love, and once more her future begins to promise happiness. After their marriage Angel tells Tess of a former fall from grace, and Tess promptly forgives him and relates her indiscretion with Alec D'Urberville. Shocked by the revelation, Angel leaves her until he can bring himself to forgive her.

Destitute, Tess is again found by D'Urberville. He offers her support and protection, and she again pays the price for existence. In the meantime Angel's love for Tess reasserts itself, and he returns. He finds her in luxury and splendor in D'Urberville's home. Torn with despair as she sees her last chance of happiness slipping away, Tess, in insane anger, kills Alec. Her crime is detected, and she surrenders herself to the law. In a grim, gray prison, safe at last from the world that had tempted and cursed her, Tess spends the remaining years of her life with her broken heart and shattered hopes, a martyr to man's wrong.
